WASHINGTON BIBLE COLLEGE

Robert H. Clark

Paul, in writing to the Romans, gives a list of those who were fellow-laborers in the gospel. In the sixteenth chapter, verse 13, we read, "Salute Rufus, chosen in the Lord."

If the history of the Washington Bible College could be faithfully recorded, it would bring to light many who were not mere members of a Board or even those who attended a class at one time or another, but rather those who were raised up by the Lord to institute and maintain the College. In relation to this work they would be "Chosen of the Lord." It is evident to all that Robert H. Clark is one that has been greatly used of the Lord in the life of the Washington Bible College and truly chosen of the Lord.

His interest in the teaching of the Word of God was recognized by the founders of the Bible Institute of Washington and he continued on the Board of Trustees of that school until the merger with the Washington Bible Institute in 1940. At that time he was elected to membership on the Board of the combined schools and has continued this responsibility for the intervening twenty years.

In addition to his present membership on the Board of Trustees of the Washington Bible College, he is a member of the Board of Directors of the Gospel Mission; Secretary of the Washington Council of the Africa Inland Mission; an active member in both the Christian Business Men's Committee and the Gideons International, and a member of the National Memorial Baptist Church. He has been a devout student and able teacher of the Word of God for a period of over fifty years.

After forty-seven years with the John H. Wilkins Coffee Company, he retired in 1952.

The students of the College affectionately dedicate this 1960 Milestone to him in recognition of his faithful service as a trustee, his personal interest in the students, his generous support of the Bible-teaching program and his personal encouragement to the administration to maintain the foundations laid so well by the founders of the College.

DEDICATION

IN MEMORIAM

Esther M. Kennedy

It is written of Abraham:

"By faith he sojourned in the land of promise as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same Promise: For he looked for a city which had foundations, whose builder and maker is God." Heb. 11:9-10.

The Washington Bible College has been greatly blessed because of devout men and women who have shared their lives in the work of the Lord here. In the case of Esther M. Kennedy, she first applied herself to the study of the Word and graduated from the Evening School in 1952. Then she stayed to help and through her vision the Sacred Record shop became a reality. Although her time was limited because of her work in the Treasury Department of the U. S. Government, she gave much of her free time to the ministry of operating the Record shop. Through the years this was a labor of love. In addition, she contributed liberally of her funds to the College, was a faithful Prayer Steward, an officer in the Alumni Association and a member of the Women's Auxiliary. Her artistic ability was in evidence at many WBC functions where she supplied the decorations and unique programs.

She was devoted to serving others. Her happy countenance and cheery voice were welcome to all who entered W. B. C. She won many friends for the College by her unselfish labor for Christ. She did all things well.

But her goal was not here below. She revelled in the joy of soon seeing Christ. By faith she lived with her face heavenward. Her testimony increased in effectiveness as her days were shortened and her life echoed the praises of the Saviour she loved.

She labored that others might hear the Word, be sanctified by the Word, become teachers of the Word and "sent ones" to the uttermost part of the earth.

Her abundant entrance was December 9, 1959.

TO THE CLASS OF 1960:

As the end of the age approaches we are certain to witness an increasingly progressive movement away from the Biblical principles that should govern service for our Lord Jesus Christ. Already modern buildings, modern equipment, modern methods, new approaches and specialized personnel have appeared glamorous. They are becoming dominant in the thinking of Christian schools, churches and organizations that exist for the purpose of proclaiming the gospel. Endowments, fund raising campaigns, budgets, financial meetings, salary problems and financial issues are increasing. Competition, promotion, advertising, secular standards, conformity to the world, degrees, recognition are increasing the financial demands.

Of course the danger does not lie in these things themselves and in most cases they seem legitimate. The danger exists in becoming dependent upon material things to accomplish spiritual objectives. The pressure of these things is a very real present pit into which it is easy to fall. Temptation to divert God's provision into material equipment to satisfy our pride may result in waste and want.

God's methods do not change. It is still, "Not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble. But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty, and base-despised-are not, to bring to nought things that are: that no flesh should glory in His presence." I Cor. 1:26-29. "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds." 2 Cor. 10:4.

Unless modern things can fit into the above they but exalt pride and the flesh. What are our weapons? First, the Word of God, not reason or human learning. Are we committed to the Sword of the Spirit? There is no substitute. Remember the words of our Saviour, "The flesh profiteth nothing." When the testings come, never be found running to the world and the flesh for help. Let us not substitute a committee meeting for a prayer meeting. Though every visible source of help vanish, God is no weaker, nor impoverished. He is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all you ask or think. Faith is the victory.

An important part of maturity and development is the practice of maintaining responsibilities and making decisions. It is with this in mind that the W.B.C. Student Council functions and allows the students to help govern themselves. Consisting of two representatives from each class and the student body officers, this group incorporates all of the wisdom of Solomon in determining the fellow students' needs and desires, as well as being the intermediary between the college administration and the students. This year, under the capable leadership of its president, John Gregory, the Council has instituted a constitution and remodeled the recreation room, dealing also with the many routine problems and providing a well-rounded social program.

EPHESIANS 3:9

World Vision Conference

During the week of March 7-11 the voice of experience echoed loudly throughout our College halls. W.B.C.'s annual Missionary Conference, sponsored by the student Foreign Missions Fellowship, became an instrument in God's hands as six veteran missionaries assembled from the far corners of the world to convey first-hand accounts of the needs, trials, and victories encountered as a servant for Christ on foreign soil.

The theme, "Trained to Transmit the Truth," was selected by the students to place before them a constant challenge as they considered the testimonies and experiences of the veterans in light of their own present preparation.

For this highlight in the College year, many W.B.C. students had invested long hours constructing missionary displays, decorations, programs and numerous other necessary items to mold and develop the Conference to a peak. In view of the fact that the Conference was saturated with prayer and directed to make the pupil more sensitive to the leading of the Spirit, the students found themselves keenly anticipating the day when they too might see the native forsake his vain fetishes, abandon his lifeless idols and surrender his heart to the living Christ.

Student Prayer Bands

An essential part of Christian growth is the exercise of prayer. Each year the Foreign Missions Fellowship divides itself into six groups representing the general areas of the world: Europe, the Far East, the Islands of the Sea, North America, South America, and Africa. The student is free to select any one of these groups, in which he receives added information concerning the many activities in that area enabling him to more intelligently petition the Throne of Grace in their behalf. It becomes rather difficult for the student to pray for a need without asking, "Lord, is this the gap I should fill?" Thus, the prayer bands serve as another channel to leave the individual more susceptible to the will of God.

EUROPE PRAYER BAND
Bill Littleton, Leader

SOUTH AMERICA PRAYER BAND
Sam Martz, Leader

Spearheading the Foreign Missions Fellowship this year has been an energetic group of officers who have been constantly concerned that the many different fields of Christian service be clearly presented in order that students might be able to intelligently determine the will of God for their ministry. The officers are: President, Roscoe Williams; Vice-President, Irene Kmet; Secretary, Hazel Matthews; Treasurer, Sam Martz.

High on every student's list of blessings are the times of enlightenment and instruction afforded at the daily chapel periods. It is in these meetings that many of the country's finest Bible teachers, experienced pastors, and veteran missionaries present compelling challenges. From the pastor's study to the missionary's tireless translation work, we see a wide span of the numerous presentations of the Gospel. Pictured above are three of our noted speakers: Dr. Charles Woodbridge, Bible teacher from Word of Life; Rev. Kenneth Masteller, pastor of the Haddon Heights Baptist Church, Haddon Heights, New Jersey; and Rev. Paul Reiter, Deputation Secretary of Central American Mission.

AFRICA

Summer, 1959

The students at the Washington Bible College count it a privilege to be subjected to a faculty which vividly demonstrates those practices expounded in the classroom. A prime example of such zeal and interest is our President, George A. Miles, who ministered this past summer in Africa under auspices of the Pocket Testament League.

It was only after a great deal of prayer and sacrifice that President Miles boarded a plane bound for African fields of labor, to distribute the Word of God into hands of those who had hitherto known nothing of the love and grace of Christ. Once there President Miles each day for two months saw the great continent of Africa open the doors of its schools and churches that thousands of children might have copies of the Gospel of John which may someday lead them to the Saviour.

Even as lives were transformed in Africa through this ministry, so has President Miles been re-charged with a clearer vision of fields awaiting the harvest.

Distributing the Gospel of John

"Go ye." No amount of description can take the place of front line experience. Roscoe Williams had the distinct privilege last summer of a two months tour and ministry in Venezuela, South America. The vision he gained has been transmitted to the student body as he so ably led the Foreign Missions Fellowship.

"To all the world." Marvin Woods also felt the leading of God to visit this mission field with Orinoco River Mission. From assisting in construction work to actual preaching in inland native villages, Marvin shared in a most vital ministry.

"The light shines furthest which shines brightest at home." We need not wait to cross the oceans in order to witness to different nationalities. Irene Kmet ministered in D.V.B.S. work in Chinatown, New York City, in cooperation with Children's Bible Fellowship.

As summer approaches and the last examinations are concluded with great relief, many of the W.B.C. students prepare to embark upon tasks in which they might apply the training and knowledge. In the month of June our students disperse to many states and other countries.

"How shall they hear?" Among the least emphasized needs in our country is that of reaching the deaf, dumb, and mentally retarded. Jim and Faith Bryan have been given the unique ability of entering this world of limitation to present the love of Christ. They gave themselves to this ministry last summer at Lakeside Bible Conference as they ministered with C.B.F. under Uncle Win Ruelke.

Student Summer Ministries

Sharpening Spiritual Swords

"All things to all men." It is difficult to anticipate the many gaps that a yielded Christian may be called upon to fill. Kay Sakata's summer work ranged from painter, chef, counsellor, teacher, to house-to-house visitation, and street work with C.B.F., all with the goal of winning boys and girls to Christ.

"A melody in your heart to the Lord." This Quartet spent the summer months traveling on the Eastern Seaboard from Virginia to New Hampshire. Reading from left to right: Paul Kemp, Dave Ritchie, Sam Martz, and Jim Hasse.

"That some might be won." One of the varied programs to reach young people for Christ is that of the River Valley Ranch in Millers, Maryland. In this western atmosphere, Art Noll (class of '61) decked in Stetson and boots, sought to proclaim the regenerating power of the Gospel.

These months of invaluable experience play a vital part in the over-all molding and polishing of a student. He is better able to serve because he has been of service.

"The least of these." Under the auspices of Child Evangelism, Evelyn Sakata worked in the farm lands of Eastern Pennsylvania teaching otherwise unreached boys and girls in daily Bible Clubs.

Channeling Spiritual Energies

As the average W.B.C. student is constantly tied by invisible chains to the endless research and notes, there yet remains that insatiable desire to execute the task to which he has been called—presenting the Gospel of Christ. The College has a Christian Service Department, headed by Mr. Herbert Arnold, for the express purpose of channeling these spiritual energies. On this page we have depicted some of the ministries in which our students participate: mission programs, youth work, puppet shows, and pastorates.

As further examples of the wide scope of Christian activities, we find teachers of Sunday School classes, tract ministries, neighborhood Bible Clubs, and Service Men's Victory Center.

In the ministry of music we find talents in choir directing and singing. To the left we see another student pastor.

Financial Support

Busily laboring to sustain their income, these students have secured part-time work in nearby organizations as office and mail-room assistants.

One of our pupils has put his knowledge to use in a hospital laboratory, while others have taken advantage of some of the numerous jobs offered at the College.

Even as the "Minute Men" of the Revolution were drawn from every type of labor to defend their country, so has God seen fit to call His servants from various employments and place them in a melting pot to be molded for His service. Leaving their farms, printing presses, typewriters, garages, grocery stores, repair shops, offices and other vocations, they gather to lay their ambitions at the feet of Christ. Many students use their former talents to help finance their education and continually discover how to use such abilities in furthering the presentation of the Gospel.

A Musical Message: Messiah's Birth

"I heard the chimes of Christmas Day,
Their old familiar carols play."

Longfellow.

Each year Christians throughout the world are glad to joyously rehearse the miraculous story of our Saviour's birth as it has been set to music. This past Christmas season, under the excellent direction of Mr. Stilwell, the W.B.C. choir presented an evening of fine traditional music for the students and friends of the College. The capacity crowd thoroughly enjoyed and greatly appreciated the artistic program presented by the choir, brass ensemble and other special ministries.

In an attempt to meet the pressing need for adequate musical programs on the different mission fields, W.B.C. has procured some of the city's finest musical instructors. This group is under the leadership of Mr. F. Raymond Stilwell, violaist of the U.S. Marine Band.

This year an accordion instructor has been added to the fine group of musicians. Mr. W. Donald Landaas is the first accordion soloist in the history of the U.S. Marine Band. This concentrated musical emphasis has resulted in several excellent new musical groups, instrumentalists, and even a number of creative song writers.

"Exegesis of the rules that bind..."

As the cool September breezes expel the summer heat from the air, the light-hearted and heavy-headed gather like chestnuts at the Tower House in scenic Mt. Vernon, Virginia, on the beautiful Potomac River. Here among the sleepy willows, the almost flawless flowing green meadows and picturesque colonial settings students find their way from assorted summer tasks and varied locations to be introduced or reintroduced to college life. Each year this informal gathering, which meets just prior to re-entering the awaiting classrooms, serves as an opportunity for refreshment, recreation, inspiration and Dean MacCorkle's exegesis of the rules that bind. Such a retreat proves invaluable for meeting both students and faculty in a casual setting and realizing that everyone is truly your friend.

FOUNDERS' DAY BANQUET

In Remembrance of Our Initial Purpose

To best avoid the subtle pitfalls of progress it is necessary for a college to continually check its plumb line and be assured that it has not wavered from its original alignment to its foundation and purpose. It is with this protective in mind that W.B.C. observes its annual Founders' Day Banquet. Each year interested friends and co-laborers assemble themselves to reflect on these purposes and the history of the College in light of the anticipated advances which the Lord holds in the future.

At the National City Christian Church several hundred friends heard the faculty and staff project the school's original aims into terms of the expanding future. Hearts were challenged to pray for guidance and yieldedness in all things that Christ might be pre-eminent. The College musical staff added to the blessing of the evening as did the splendid voice of Ben Mitchel Morris, solo tenor with the U.S. Navy Band. The climax of the evening was a stirring message from the Word of God by Rev. William Sampson.

Getting Acquainted

As a part of this year's freshmen orientation, the Women's Auxiliary offered to introduce the new students to the fascinating city of Washington. The ladies chauffeured them on a sight-seeing tour of some of the places of interest. Included in this expedition were visits to the Library of Congress, the Washington Monument, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, etc.

We cannot over emphasize the great wealth of culture found in the unique city of Washington—virtually the capital of the world. It is the desire of the college administration that the students become introduced to the innumerable cultural institutions in the area such as the Library of Congress, the National Gallery of Art, the Smithsonian Museum, the Washington Monument, the Supreme Court Building, the White House, the Lincoln Monument and Museum, nearby Mount Vernon, and countless more.

Of Culture

As an attempt to encourage this cultural education the school plans periodical field trips which this year took the pupils to the Capitol, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and the Bureau of Engraving.

The advanced minds of the pastors at the conference were assembled as a panel to be quizzed by the young people on general Bible knowledge.

Since the theme of this year's Conference was the "Key to Knowledge," one of the first events on the program was to test the individual's knowledge. Different displays were arranged in the lobby for the participants to identify such items as the location, the Scripture account, the date, etc.

11th Annual

YOUTH CONFERENCE

*"Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me,
My father thou art the guide of my youth?"*
Jeremiah 3:4

In an age when millions of young people are easily attracted to the glitter and glamor of temporal things, it is urgent and important that the church of Christ reach forth and make the promises and work of Christ known. In an effort to counteract the leech-like grasp of Satan, which would sap all spiritual interest from a young person, W.B.C. presents an annual Youth Conference designed to acquaint young people with the possibilities of as well as the necessity for studying God's Word.

Each year this endeavor becomes even more far-reaching and effective as testified by the presence of the several hundred young people. Tightly wedged into this two-day program are examples of typical college classes, challenges from the Word of God, a tour of the college dormitories, a question-answer period, devotions, recreation, food, discussions with typical students and a splendid musical program by the college choir and quartet. This year's program was highlighted by Don Landaas, accordion soloist with the Marine Band, and noted baritone, Fague Springman.

One of the highlights of the program was the wonderful voice of baritone Fague Springman, occasionally on the Telephone Hour, and currently professor at Maryland University.

Sports

To deviate from the unyielding grindstone, students seek refuge in the different provided sports. The Hercules can find his expression in the set of bar-bells which set steadfast and almost immovable on the recreation room floor. The fleet-footed Mercurys find solace in the "never say die" basketball team, which plays in a local league; or in the football, softball, and volleyball teams performing at the school picnics and other outings.

Again in the recreation room the quick-wristed, sleight-of-hand ping-pong majors are drawn to the tables like ants to a picnic lunch. Intramural tournaments are planned to avoid mass confusion and possibly determine champion singles and doubles players to challenge the adroit faculty. However, sooner or later all of the athletic-minded exhaust their energy and retreat to the temperate pace of ageless checkers.

Top picture shows the mighty men maturing their masculine muscles to mountainous measures. To the right are active angular agents of animated activity, adherents of adroit adaptation.

Above we see the pleasant ping pong players who placed in peak positions. Just below them are the bold ball bouncing basketballers bound for the bountiful boon.

HONOR SOCIETY

Symbol of achievement, emblem of dedication, incentive to progress, the Chi Alpha Omega Key is awarded to the outstanding students who have answered the academic challenge with high merit. The Chi Alpha Omega Key represents the Utopia of academic acclaim and is presented only after the student's fourth year in the prized Honor Society.

Students maintaining a 2.5 average are admitted to the society for scholastic achievement attained during the previous year.

Highest scores in achievement tests: Bill Hine, James Schuppe, Ernest Rhodes.

Merit

Freshmen scholarship: Grace Miles, Doris Jenkins, Bill Hine, James Schuppe, Argyl Dick; Freshmen all around activity: June Morris and Cullen Rast.

Milestone

Business and Advertisement: Business Manager, Sam Martz; Advertisement Editor, Grayson McNeill.

Milestone Staff

Layout, Photography and Secretarial: Layout, Dave MacCorkle and Bud Bibber. Photography, Joe Sharp; Assistants, Cullen Rast, Bruce Dick, Irene Kmet. Secretarial, Betty Gregory; Assistant, JoAnn Ingram. Proofreading, Grace Miles. Music, Jim Schuppe.

The Milestone staff consists of individuals who are earnestly concerned that YOU, the reader, receive a clear picture of the life and work of the Washington Bible College. In this institution, which we believe to exist by God's ordination, we truly desire that the Milestone be an instrument by which we may graphically communicate the energies of this ministry in the proclamation of the Gospel of Christ. We trust that our graduates will often look back upon this publication with great pleasure as it reminds them of days well spent. We give heartfelt thanks to all who assisted in making the 1960 Milestone a spiritual success.

College Staff

These silent soldiers in service faithfully and diligently maintain the tedious essentials necessary to efficiently sustain a College. The pressures of growth and progress continually add to the mounting responsibilities of this dedicated staff, demanding a love for the uncolorful tasks in the furtherance of the Gospel of Christ. The College is grateful for the tireless efforts of these who battle the endless mailing lists, records, accounting ledgers, correspondence and many other facets which are often taken for granted.

Prayer Stewards

If you were to ask, "What is the greatest thing I can do to help the work of W.B.C.?" there could be no other answer but that old familiar one, "Pray for us." This phrase is too often underestimated in the Christian world and yet the College has no deeper desire than that Christians bombard the Throne of Grace with petitions on its behalf.

For many years now the spearhead of this vital department has been the enthusiastic Rev. Edward Stelling. As Prayer Steward Secretary for the College, Rev. Stelling issues a monthly prayer letter which enumerates many aids and essentials to an effective, productive prayer life. Attached to this letter is an itemized list of many of the pressing needs which are continually confronted by the College. You would be a welcomed addition to this growing ministry of Prayer Stewards from which we are sure you would receive a rich blessing from Him who honors such faithfulness.

Monthly prayer meeting which is held at the College.

Women's Auxiliary

The purchase of the Choir robes is but one of the many ways in which the Women's Auxiliary has aided the school.

We feel that we would need to glean from Webster's Dictionary its kindest adjectives to even begin to express our appreciation for the work of the Women's Auxiliary. That special woman's touch which is so needed in any institution has been more than adequately supplied by this sacrificial organization. Now in its fifth year, the group has answered urgent needs as they have arisen as they have also supplied the little necessities that make the college scene complete. In a brief sketch of the Auxiliary's activities, we find them organizing cottage prayer meetings, corresponding with Alumni missionaries, sponsoring an annual Tea for senior ladies and wives of senior men, completing their $1,500 pledge for our new offset press, purchasing choir robes and stoles, conducting the freshmen students on an introductory tour of Washington, supplying funds to purchase a new toaster and a much needed rug for the lounge; and so they go on and on. If you would be interested in adding your assistance to the group, notify Mrs. June Whipple, Auxiliary president.

Student Wives Club

To the right: Socials are among the many activities of the Students' Wives Club. Here we see them at the annual Christmas party. Below: Recipients of the P.H.T. degree, "Putting Hubby Through." This is conferred to each wife upon her husband's graduation.

The Students' Wives Club provides an opportunity for the wife of any actively enrolled Day College student, Seminary student or any married man attending Washington Bible College to meet together once a month for Bible study, prayer and Christian fellowship. Various types of meetings are held, and each month brings speakers from various walks of Christian life. Meetings are held in the homes of members of the club or at the College. Each meeting has a devotional, missionary, educational or practical emphasis to it with each one pointed to the interests of a Christian wife. These meetings have proved to be a real spiritual blessing in the life of each member.

ALUMNI

One of the best testimonies to a school's worth and fabric is its Alumni. The Washington Bible College has been blessed by an active and cooperative group of graduates who seek to further the development of themselves and the school in which they have trained.

Under the leadership of the president, Rev. Edward Carmichael, this Association has laid before itself the dual objectives of helping the school's present students and assisting in the advertisement of the College's purpose and potential. This Alumni also intends to play a large part in the growing impact and advancement of the College so that they might themselves be an impressionable evidence to the value of a fundamental Bible education.

"DEAR OLD W.B.C."

Frances E. Wright

Charles R. Lazo

The musical score is written for a four-part setting (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are as follows:

To Thee dear school in Wash ing ton We hum bly pledge our part To serve the Lord, re ceive His Word The Bi ble, in the heart; The red and white speak of His might to give us vic to ry; We hear God's Word our hearts are stirred at dear old W B C.

The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, time signatures, key signatures, and dynamic markings. There are also some performance instructions like 'tr' (trill) and 'acc' (accents). The final measure of the song features a triplet of eighth notes for the words 'W B C'.

This song was composed this year in connection with a program to promote college spirit at W.B.C.
